DESIGN CONSIDERATIONS

Be sure to design specifically for digital by taking advantage of bright color and vivid, large images. Keep your design bold and concise. Digital Display ads need to be read and understood quickly. Stick to one idea and make it a simple, bold statement. A simple ad will have greater retention. Also, because of the brightness of LED displays it is most effective to use a darker background with lighter copy for the best contrast. Another benefit; rich dark colors use less power to display. Also, as with printing, always use professional quality photographs for the best results.
